

Lesson 23

Basic Grammar:

I. ~고있다...

Subject + Be (동사) + Verbing + (하고있는곳).

현재:

I am watching TV.

I am eating lunch.

I am working right now.

I am taking the bus.

I am getting on the train.

I am getting off the train/bus.

과거:

I was eating dinner.

I was meeting my friend.

I was getting off the train.

Exercise 1:

With your partner, finish the following dialogue:

A: What are you doing?

B: _____.

Exercise 2:

A: What were you doing?

B: _____.

II. Yet (아직) 는 문장끝에서 쓰세요. (무지정 경우)

Example:

I didn't eat yet – 아직 안먹었어요.

We're not finished yet – 아직 안끝났어요.

It's not ready yet – 아직 준비안됐다.

I didn't see D War yet – D War 아직 안봤다.

Exercise 1:

With your partner, finish the following dialogue:

A: Did you _____?

B: I didn't _____ yet.

Exercise 2:

A: Did you finish _____?

B: I didn't _____ yet.

Dialogue 1:

A: When will you leave for Pusan?

B: I will leave for Pusan this 추석.

A: Did you finish packing?

B: No, not yet.*

Not yet = 아직

Dialogue 2:

A: What will you buy your boyfriend for his birthday?

B: I'm going to buy him a MacBook for his birthday.

A: Did you order it?

B: Not yet.

Exercise 1:

With your partner, make a dialogue using “Yet”

Dialogue 3:

A: What are you doing?

B: I'm listening to some music.

A: What are you listening to?

B: I'm listening to Earth, Wind and Fire.

Exercise:

Please make a ~고 있다 Dialogue.

Dialogue 4:

A: What will you do on your day off?

B: I'm going shopping.

A: What are you shopping for?

B: I think I'll buy a new skirt.

A: Do you know where you'll shop?

B: Not yet.

Exercise:

Please make a future dialogue.